TITLE: George Darrow Slides

COLLECTION NUMBER: B2019.006

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: circa 1973-2010

Extent: 4 boxes; 0.8 linear feet

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): George Darrow

Administrative/Biographical History:

George Darrow (1939-) came to Alaska with the Air Force in 1973 and was stationed at Elmendorf Air Force Base. There, he was assigned to the 1931st Communications Group--Radio Maintenance, with a temporary duty assignment to Shemya from November 1974-February 1975. After retiring from service in 1978, Darrow held a variety of jobs in Anchorage, the longest with the Department of Veterans Affairs, from which he retired in 2005.¹

Scope and Content Description:

The collection consists of 743 color 35mm slides taken by Darrow during his time in Alaska. Early images include photographs taken by Darrow at various military communications sites. Later images primarily depict Darrow's outdoor recreation activities and trips around the state. For more information, see Detailed Description of Collection.

Arrangement: Arranged by subject and date, when known.
