TITLE: Alice Puster Collection

COLLECTION NUMBER: B2019.017

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: 1959-2000

Extent: 4 cubic feet

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): Puster, Alice, 1927-2011

Administrative/Biographical History:

Alice Jean Puster (1927-2011) was born to Otto and Loretta Puster in Pomona, California. As a young woman, Puster and her sister Florine traveled through 33 states, where she photographed the entire trip. In 1962, she moved to Anchorage, Alaska, with Martha Brewer and got a job as a photographer for The Anchorage Times. Her photographs of the 1964 earthquake were world-renowned, and she received a congratulatory letter from The Associated Press. Puster was also on the board of the Anchorage Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals and the Anchorage Zoo. She was chosen as Alaskan of the Year in the 1970s for her photography and her work with the Humane Society. Puster retired from The Anchorage Times in 1990 and moved to Cooper Landing. There, she became a member of the Cooper Landing Senior Citizen Corporation, Inc., and the Sexy Senior Dumpster Cleaners.¹

Scope and Content Description:

This collection consists of negatives, slides, prints, proof sheets, videos, equipment, and ephemera related to Puster's career as a photographer.

Arrangement: Series and items arranged in original order, when available. Loose items organized by subject. Folders arranged chronologically, then alphabetically.

CONDITIONS GOVERNING ACCESS AND USE

Restrictions on Access: The collection is open for research use.

Physical Access: Original items in good condition.

Technical Access: No special equipment is needed to access the materials.

Conditions Governing Reproduction and Use:

The Anchorage Museum is the owner of the materials and makes available reproductions for research, publication, and other uses. Written permission must be obtained from the Anchorage Museum before any reproduction use. The Anchorage Museum does not necessarily hold copyright to all the materials in this collection. In some cases, permission for use may require seeking additional authorization from the copyright owners. Photographs produced for her employer will enter the public domain 120 years after capture if unpublished; if published that date varies; until then, copyright is owned by the Anchorage Daily News. Photographs of Puster, where the photographer is unknown, will enter the public domain 120 years after capture. Photographs taken by Puster not under the parameters of her employment are owned by the Anchorage Museum and will enter the public domain in 2081.

ADMINISTRATIVE INFORMATION

Acquisition and Appraisal Information

The original collection was donated by the Velker family in October 2019. Two addendums were donated by Fran Durner on behalf of Laura Velker, one in August 2020, one in December 2021.

Processing Note

Some duplicate prints were dispositioned. Some publications not related to Puster or The Anchorage Times were dispositioned or moved to applicable Vertical File within ARC Library. Original housing was discarded if it did not contain metadata. The initial three 2019-2021 donations have been processed together as the initial collection. Future addenda are expected and will be processed as addenda.

Separated Materials

Folder 284 is housed in the oversize flat files.

Notes

Description in quotation marks indicates description from the creator, Alice Puster.

Description with no quotation marks indicates description from the donor, Fran Durner.

Description in brackets indicates description from the archivist, Chloe Nielsen.
