TITLE: Don Horter Photographs

COLLECTION NUMBER: B2014.016

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: circa 1945-1966

Extent: 10 boxes; 4.6 linear feet

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): Don Horter, Eric Horter, Dawson Photographers, Muriel Hannah, Fred Milkie, Forde & Carter, Alfred S. Witter, J. Malcolm Greany, Jacobson's Studio, Frank Dufresne, Steve McCutcheon, Ward Wells, Charles Lane

Administrative/Biographical History:

Don Horter was a professional photographer and filmmaker in the Pacific Northwest and Alaska. Between the mid-1940s and the mid-1960s, he did commercial photography and films for several Alaska-based companies and governmental agencies, including Alaska Freight Lines, Northern Consolidated Airlines, Pan American Airways, and Wien Airlines. He worked with pilot Ray Petersen and the National Park Service to popularize sport fishing in Alaska, primarily in Katmai National Park. His Alaskan films include Fish On (1948), Alaska (1952), Bulldog Convoy in the Arctic (1955), Wheels to the Arctic (1955), Alaska: our pioneer heritage (1956), and Angler's Paradise (1959). In 1959, Don and his son Eric started Don Horter Productions in Oregon. Don Horter died in 1971 in Eugene, Oregon.

Scope and Content Description:

The collection contains 2933 primarily black-and-white prints (some on contact sheets only; 10 color prints numbered .1592-.1601) and 750 color transparencies (4 x 5" and 2.25 x 2.25") created or collected by Don Horter during his work around Alaska circa 1945-1966. The bulk of the material relates to fly-in fishing in Katmai National Park and to the convoy that ferried supplies north during construction of Distant Early Warning Line sites in Alaska and Canada. Also included are many images of Horter and other photographers taking photographs and shooting film around the state. For more information, see Detailed Description of Collection.

Arrangement: Arranged by format. Original order maintained within prints, with original binder or folder titles noted. Transparencies arranged by location and subject.

CONDITIONS GOVERNING ACCESS AND USE

Restrictions on Access: The collection is open for research use.

Physical Access: Original items in fair to good condition.

Technical Access: No special equipment is needed to access the materials. Light box may be used to view transparencies.

Conditions Governing Reproduction and Use:

The Anchorage Museum is the owner of the materials and makes available reproductions for research, publication, and other uses. Written permission must be obtained from the Anchorage Museum before any reproduction use. The Anchorage Museum does not necessarily hold copyright to all of the materials in the collections. .881 – [on verso:] 11536-160 [Copper Inuit man standing on fender of Mack truck]
.882 – [on verso:] 11538-50 [tractor-trailer accident, trailer on its side in background, crevasse in ice in foreground]
.883 – [on verso:] 11538-78 [tractor-trailer accident, Alaska Freight Lines Inc. Mack truck stuck in ice]
.884 – [on verso:] 11538-29 [tractor-trailer accident, men unloading barrels from trailer stuck in ice]

.885 – [on verso:] 11538-27 [tractor-trailer accident, men unloading barrels from trailer stuck in ice]

.886 – [on verso:] 11538-35 [tractor-trailer accident, two men standing at right, trailer stuck in ice, tracked vehicle at left]

.887 – [on verso:] 11538-81 [tractor-trailer accident, barrels from trailer piled on ice, tracked vehicles in background]

.888 – [on verso:] 11538-58 [tractor-trailer accident, men standing next to trailer on its side, ropes attached to trailer]

.889 – [on verso:] 11538-36 [tractor-trailer accident, trailer stuck in ice, crevasse in ice in foreground]

.890 – With the cargo discharged and scattered over the ice the crew soon devised a method of saving the unit with the help of bulldozers and anchor chains. 11538-79 [tractor-trailer accident, men unloading barrels from trailer stuck in ice]

.891 – Disaster struck one of the Mack units as it rolled across Coronation Gulf, hitting a weak spot in the 7 foot thick ice. It cracked and gave way beneath the concentrated weight. Fortunately, the pressure quickly caught the trailer and held it above the water even though the wheels were in the ocean. The crew were able to unload the cans of valuable cement despite a 50° below zero temperature and a 50 mile wind. 11538-82 [tractor-trailer accident, trailer stuck in ice, crevasse in ice in foreground]

.892 – [on verso:] 11538-37 [tractor-trailer accident, Alaska Freight Lines Inc. Mack truck with trailer on its side]

.893 – [on verso:] 11538-73 [tractor-trailer accident, bulldozers attached to trailer on its side]
