TITLE: James von der Heydt Collection

COLLECTION NUMBER: B2003.022

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: 1943-1954

Extent: 374 slides, 0.7 linear feet

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): James von der Heydt

Administrative/Biographical History:

A native of Montana, James Arnold von der Heydt graduated from Albion College, Michigan in 1942 with a Bachelor's Degree. In 1951, he graduated from Northwestern University School of Law in Evanston, Illinois. Von der Heydt served as a Deputy U.S. Marshal for the Territory of Alaska from 1945-1948. He became a Federal Court Commissioner in the U.S. District Court for the District of Alaska in 1951. Also in 1951, President Dwight Eisenhower appointed von der Heydt as U.S. Attorney for the District of Alaska. Von der Heydt was employed in the private practice of law in Alaska from 1953-1959, and served in the Alaska House of Representatives from 1957-1959. He was a presiding judge for the Alaska Superior Court from 1959-1966, before being nominated by President Lyndon B. Johnson as federal judge for the U.S. District Court, District of Alaska, serving from 1966-1984. He served as chief judge from 1973 to 1984, when he assumed senior status.

During his early years in Alaska, von der Heydt travelled to many places in the territory and took hundreds of photographic slides with his Leica camera. He used the slides in a series of lectures that he presented in various locations outside Alaska.

Scope and Content Description:

The collection consists of 374 35mm color photographic slides of Alaska Natives, Eskimo hunters, Alaska airports, and the Alcan Highway. The slides were taken in King Island, Nome, Gambell, Saint Lawrence Island, Teller, Stebbins, Kotzebue, Unalakleet, Cape Prince of Wales, Juneau, Fairbanks, Chatanika, Northway, and Tok.

Arrangement: Arranged by location.
