TITLE: John N. Rupp Collection

COLLECTION NUMBER: B2011.012

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: 1943-1991, bulk 1944-1945

Extent: 2 linear feet

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): John N. Rupp

Administrative/Biographical History:

John N. Rupp was born March 18, 1913, in Seattle, WA. He was educated at the University of Washington, and received his law degree from the UW Law School in 1937. He practiced with McMicken, Rupp and Schweppe from 1939 to 1962, and then served as vice president and counsel for Pacific Northwest Bell Telephone Company from 1962-1975. He then joined Schweppe, Doolittle, Krug, Tausend and Beezer, and later Preston Gates and Ellis, before retiring in 1995.¹

He left his legal practice in 1944, when he was commissioned as an ensign in the U.S. Navy. He was sent to "indoctrination school" in Tucson and then to communications school at Harvard. He served a short tour on the Coding Board of the 13th Naval District at Seattle before being ordered to the 17th Naval District at Adak. He worked in communications and briefly as Acting District Legal Officer before being assigned as Aide, Flag Secretary, and Flag Lieutenant to Admiral Frank Jack Fletcher. He was with Fletcher in Japan for about three weeks after the Japanese surrender in 1945. Returning to Kodiak, Rupp then became Aide and Flag Lieutenant to Admiral Ralph Wood, serving in that capacity until his release from active duty in February 1946.²

Rupp died Aug. 21, 1996, in Seattle, WA.

Scope and Content Description:

The collection consists of a large scrapbook, a small binder of cartoons from The Adakian (a newspaper produced by American servicemen stationed in Adak, Alaska, during World War II), photographs, documents, correspondence, and an autobiography. Most of the materials pertain to Rupp's service with the U.S. Navy in World War II.

Arrangement:

Arranged in six series: 1. Scrapbook. 2. The Adakian cartoons 1945. 3. U.S. Navy photographs. 4. Personal photographs. 5. Manuscript materials. 6. Autobiography.

CONDITIONS GOVERNING ACCESS AND USE

Restrictions on Access: The collection is open for research use.

Physical Access: Original items in good condition.

Technical Access: No special equipment is needed to access the materials.

Conditions Governing Reproduction and Use:

The Anchorage Museum is the owner of the materials and makes available reproductions for research, publication, and other uses. - 4.5 – Photograph. Morehead, Howd, Civile
- 4.6 – Photograph. The snow, they say, had drifted pretty high when this was taken. Tunnels were necessary in spots [Comalsec Staff Offices]
- 4.7 – Photograph. Candid shot of icicles on their native heath
- 4.8 – Photograph. [Two men on skis]
- 4.9 – Photograph. Another unidentified citizen, but it’s the same old drifted snow. The baseball cap type of hat is a great favorite with enlisted men

4.10 – Photograph. The wind blows the snow off the rocks in the more rugged areas; hence the leprous effect

4.11 – Photograph. Winter 1943-44 [Quonset hut]

4.12 – Photograph. There is a valley just over the edge of the level spot in the foreground. You can see a corner of a bay ‘way off at the left and a long way down. Those depressions in the snow on the far side of the bay are stream beds [man in foreground]

4.13 – Photograph. [Man sits on railing with base buildings in background]

4.14 – Photograph. Winter scene. The lake is, I believe, Lake Betty. Of all things [man in foreground]

4.15 – Photograph. Most of our jeeps have “home made” (by Seabees) enclosed bodies. The reason is, I take it, readily ascertainable

4.16 – Photograph. The snow has a tendency to drift. Last year we were Comalsec. Now we are Comseventeen. But the entrance is the same beat up old doorway

4.17 – Photograph. [Man shoveling in front of building entrance]

4.18 – Photograph. Winter scene – “stream, with huts.” In some exposed regions the huts are half buried in the ground. Ours are built a little off the ground, but they don’t blow away very often [two men on stream bank]

4.19 – Photograph. More unknown skiers. Hardly an interesting picture; even the sky is white

4.20 – Photograph. 1943-44 Winter. Behold Castillo, the faun, throwing a snowball which may be seen in the air in front of the right-hand hut. The man on the far left is Roy Civile with whom I work

4.21 – Photograph. [Man on snowy ridgeline]

4.22 – Photograph. Mountains everywhere

4.23 – Photograph. Huts usually leak around the windows and stove pipes. Sometimes the wind tears the iron roofs off and sending them spinning down wind
