TITLE: Joseph S. Rychetnik Collection

COLLECTION NUMBER: B2017.024

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: 1958-1999

Extent: 28 boxes

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): Joseph S. Rychetnik, Van Cleve Photography

Administrative/Biographical History:
Joseph S. Rychetnik (1927-2003) was a photographer, writer, pilot, hunter, Alaska State Trooper, U.S. Marine, and member of numerous societies and clubs. During his long career, he worked for United Press International, Anchorage Daily News, Anchorage Times, National Geographic, Time/Life, and several other news outlets. He lived in Alaska from 1959-1971, afterwards returning to the state many times on assignment.

Scope and Content Description:
The collection consists of the freelance photojournalism work of Joseph S. Rychetnik, primarily in Alaska. There are over 23,000 images in transparency, negative, and print formats, and textual materials including research ephemera, clippings, and publications. The collection also contains some of Rychetnik's national and international work. Major subjects include petroleum industry, rural Alaska, aviation, and food. For more information see Detailed Description of Collection.

Arrangement: Arranged by format and subject. Within subjects, further arranged by photographer's number when present and/or date when known.

CONDITIONS GOVERNING ACCESS AND USE

Restrictions on Access: The collection is open for research use.

Physical Access: Original items in good condition.

Technical Access: No special equipment is needed to access the materials.

Conditions Governing Reproduction and Use:
The Anchorage Museum is the owner of the materials and makes available reproductions for research, publication, and other uses. Written permission must be obtained from the Anchorage Museum before any reproduction use. The Anchorage Museum does not necessarily hold copyright to all of the materials in the collections. In some cases, permission for use may require seeking additional authorization from the copyright owners.
